

Dr Guru Karnati MBBS, DMRD, DNB, FRCR

Dr Guru Karnati is a Consultant Radiologist specialising in Cross sectional and Musculoskeletal Imaging and sports injuries. He is the lead of Musculoskeletal Imaging at the Musgrove Park Hospital.

He is a member of the Royal College of Radiologists, European congress of Radiology and the Indian Radiology and Imaging Association.

He reports a wide range of Body Imaging, Musculoskeletal CT and MRI examinations and performs ultrasound scans. He is vastly experienced in a wide range of musculoskeletal procedures, especially imaging guided injections, root blocks, nerve ablations.

He is also the Honorary Senior Lecturer, University of Bristol and Executive Member of the British Association of Physicians of Indian Origin (BAPIO).

He is a keen teacher and is involved a number of International teaching projects, particularly in India and Zanzibar. He is also the director of the BTA (BAPIO Training Academy).